Message from our President – Linda Tobia:

Greetings everyone!

I hope you are having a wonderful spring and your hatching is going well. My hatching was not as great as I wished but I got a few in barreds. The new barn is up and running great. The birds have lots of room to roam around. There outside pens are connected to the inside pens. They all seem to be very happy in their new home. I manage to make it to a few shows since the Western National in November. Due to my illness, I haven't been able to attend many shows. I will be making it to a few shows this spring, Dayton show in Greenville and the Coulee show in Wisconsin in June.

Congrats, to all of the members that won an Exhibitor's Award and Legacy Award.

Have a great spring and summer and a good hatching season and I will see in the Cochins aisles. Linda Tobia

WITH DEEPEST SORROW

Maxie Chastain past away January 21, 2017 at the age of 69, he was the beloved husband of Cynthia Chastain. Maxie was a Cochins lifelong member he raised bantam Cochins and was a Master Breeder. Maxie was from Williamston, South Carolina and He will be greatly missed by many members.

Message from our Vice-President – Gail Carlson:

Greetings from my New Home in Missouri!

It was a very hectic autumn and winter for me, as I left my home of 30 years in Denver, and moved to Harrisonville, Missouri. I have to thank my good friend Annamay Carlson for taking care of my birds during the move – in addition to just helping me with the move itself! Thank You, Annamay!

Out of the city, I now have a little over two acres, and a huge 30' x 60' barn that my birds just love! My incubator has been running since January, and I now have Lemon Blues, Brown Reds and Golden Laced chicks in the brooder. I am already looking forward to showing them off this fall.

If you follow me on Facebook, you know that the first thing I did when I got to Missouri was to add two Irish wolfhound pups to my menagerie! Emma and Gatsby are certainly keeping me on my toes! Got to love the Gentle Giants!

I got to Missouri in time to attend our Western National held in Sedalia, MO, which was hosted by the Missouri State Poultry Association. I did not exhibit as the birds (and I) were still too stressed from the move, but I had a fantastic time none-the-less! It was great to see old friends and make new ones; but the highlight for me had to be finally connecting with so many friends that, I have made online over the years: Linda Tobia, Craig Hansen, Annamay Carlson, Jamie Matts, Ivy, Jason and Tabitha Young, Ken Splett, Bernita Miller, Christie and Addy Ross, Kristyl Boaz, Brad Legg, Rick Klehr, Bill Kramel, Nancy Compton, Tony & Angela Mills, Matt Lhamon, Richard & Jeannette Stecker, and Wade & Kasey Collins. And of course, Tessa Young and Farmie! Time was just too short!! The birds were all amazing, but I have to give a special shout out to Christie Ross for her Reserve of Breed win with her Brown Red pullet. And, I have to admit falling madly in love with the stunning Large Fowl Splash hen shown by Rick Klehr.

I hope you all take a few minutes now and then to check in with the Cochins International group on Facebook. It is a great place for help and advice, education, news about upcoming shows, as well as staying up-to-date on all the weekend winners around the country. At the first of every month, I post a Cochins International Community Calendar, to help you stay abreast of current news. Please feel free to contact me at any time - I am here to serve.

You can, also, find me on Facebook, or email me at HappyHens1@hotmail.com

Sincerely, Gail Carlson, Vice-President

Message from our Treasurer – Jamie Matts:

Hey everyone,

I hope this newsletter finds everyone happy hatching and raising chicks. I have two incubators that have not shut off in about three years and three more that run in April and May for the geese, peafowl and pheasants. This past year was a banner year for me with shipping a little over 400 birds to not only this country but abroad. I would have never thought as a 14 year kid showing at a local fair would turn into 30 years later shipping birds all over and judging all over. To me it's all about giving back to this hobby that has given me so much and in hopes of sparking the future generations of cochin breeders.

I had the privilege of judging in Texas, California and Delaware this past spring and have a few lined up this fall. It's a juggling act between my real job and my home and animals to get away these days. I am finding the older I get the more I like staying home and working with the birds and this place. I take a lot of pride in both and they both take a lot of work.

I enjoyed our recent tele-conference with the Board of Directors, District Directors and Chairperson of the club and thank you to our new secretary, Chris Rob, for setting it up. From what I can see the club needs some more volunteers who are willing to help and to be counted on. More and more these days volunteers are so hard to come by either people have no time or have alternative agendas. We need people with new ideas for show awards or items to promote cochins. Anything would be appreciated. Contact Gail, Linda Tobia or myself or any of the directors if you would like to help with the club. Currently the club is hovering around $4000 in the treasury. A few bills have went out to advertising in the poultry press and the exhibitor and the APA youth program "YEPA". I hope everyone has a happy and healthy summer and keep enjoying and promoting those cochins !! Jamie

Message from our Secretary – Christopher Rob:

Hello All,

First and foremost, I want to thank everyone for their support for my election. I hope to make you proud. We had a lot to talk about this spring regarding this showing season and the club and I believe we are going to have a great showing year. I know officially it is Spring, but it hasn't been feeling the warmest. Spotty rain or snow showers and potential coming up cold weather again. My grow out pens are brimming with young ones and incubator is still running and hatching every other week. Hope everyone else is getting out to those spring shows. If one of my birds is in condition, right now I would be lucky. Looks like spring shows are out for me unless the birds all stop molting and I pull the breeders apart. Oh well, just another spring missed. The important thing are the babies right? That just means I have more time to show in the fall and meet up with more of my fellow breeders and friends. Till then I wish all the best of Spring and health.

Best Regards, Christopher Rob, Secretary

North Central update from Matt Lhamon:

Dear Members,

We have started things off with a bang here in District 3. I was able to show and exhibit at the Heartland Classic Show in Anna, IL. For a small 700+ birds show, you could not find any better quality. The black bantam class was one of the better ones I have seen in recent years. Congrats, to all the breeders and winners as I think there was well over 100 Cochin Bantams and I thank Craig Hansen for sending in the show report.

Next was Lima, OH. This is my hometown and I cringe every time this show happens, as the management is not as organized as I would like and things sometimes get screwed up. They did not finish judging until early Sunday morning and had several judges on the Cochin bantam class to finish it. They had a great turnout and the Cochin bantam class was large as there were about 2000 birds in the show. Once again congrats to the winners and we can only hope that the show will get better organized next year.

The third show I went to was outside my District as Mike Sayre and I took a drive down to Winston-Salem, NC to judge the Forsyth Fowl Fanciers show. I love to go to this show as I have judged it before and the drive in early spring is spectacular. Again, a very small show of 400+ birds but the quality was exceptional. A Black Cochin bantam cockerel was Best of Show and a tremendous example of the breed. I wished I had a picture of the 4 first place Black Cochin Bantams at the Forsyth show last week. C, H, K, P. All were such fine examples of the breed that I called Michael Sayre over to take a look. We both really liked the Cockerel as he was in fantastic condition and had a perfect comb (picture below). I told Mike; wait until you see the 2nd place Cockerel, identical to the 1st place birds except for 1 more comb point. The 1st "K" was BV, BB; the 2nd "K" was RV, RB. The BB was Best FL and Best of Show. I told Mike, D. Ross Blanford was teasing me from heaven as we both mentioned his name when we saw these two cockerels! Good job Tom Roebuck, your Dad would be very proud!

A few pet peeves' I see in our Cochins as I judge and travel across the US. Whites that have white beaks, legs and skin never get far under me. I know it is easier to keep them Stay White but the beaks, skin and legs are YELLOW! I also see way too many blacks with solid black beaks and black legs with the exception of the bottoms of their feet! Read the Standard and breed to it! My last one for this edition is a bird that is just a big fluffy mess of feathers with no conformation or shape. I see way too many of these winning and they lack the definition and curves of a real Cochin, just a big blob of feathers with no form!

I have placed meets at all the shows in my District but if I missed you, please email me and I will get one placed. I prefer email as a way to contact me as I work a rotating swing shift so you will seldom get me on the phone. I have one rule for placing meets, if I place a meet at your show, you had better get the show report completed in a timely manner, or you will never get another!

The District 3 meet will be with the Ohio National on November 11-12, 2017. Even without a big National meet, this is the largest show in the US and always a very competitive Cochin Class. I hope to see everyone there this fall so hatch a bunch of good ones.

Matt Lhamon

Northeast 1 update from Lisa Podgwaite:

Hatching and the spring show season has started and it doesn't get any better than this.

New England winter was not so bad this year. It appears we had most of our snow in February and March, but all in all a very New England winter.

I have set spring meets at:

- Green Mountain Poultry Show
- New England Bantam Club
- Little Rhody
- Central Maine Bird Fanciers
- Finger Lakes
- Connecticut Poultry Breeders

That's what I have for the spring shows. I have placed the District meet at the Central Maine's Fall Show, this is their 30th anniversary show.

I am sure there are lots of little baby cochins running around in your barns. I must say I did really well hatching my blacks this year. I often wonder why the whites start laying so late compared to the blacks. I know some folks on Facebook are experiencing the same thing. With that said, I have just started filling the incubator with whites.

At the Northeast Poultry Congress Show in January we had a really good turnout of cochins. There were some really nice birds. Tom Roebuck had a really nice black cockerel.

I am looking forward to seeing all the cochin breeders and your beautiful birds at the shows. Lisa

Northeast 2 update from Rich Barczewski:

Once again Avian Influenza has reared its ugly head and as a result, some of our shows are going to be impacted. For the most part, the USDA looks at these outbreaks in reference to the waterfowl flyways in which they occur. The current outbreak is in the Mississippi Flyway and to date there have been a couple of cases in Tennessee and a couple in Alabama. I've also heard (but haven't been able to confirm) that there was one additional case in Kentucky.

We in NE II have been dealing with AI testing for quite some time now and if this trend continues I suspect that many poultry hobbyists are going to be dealing with it more frequently. From a hobbyist perspective, I think it is important to pay close attention to what is going on with the disease, where it is currently being found and how it is progressing. In addition, it is critical that all of us do our best to minimize potential exposure to the virus. This is a personal decision when no bans are in effect. It is up to us to decide if we will attend shows, swaps, or sales. Personally, I try to keep track of where there are confirmed cases and act accordingly.

On a more positive note, I hope all is going well in your breeding pens. I'm wrapping up my major hatching for the year as we speak. I always like to get my large fowl out as early as I can. I may do some very selective breeding to get a few additional chicks out yet if space allows. Most of my efforts will change away from the cochins and to my other breed White Laced Red Cornish bantams and to my wild waterfowl for the rest of the season.

Watch the Facebook pages for updates on District and National meets in the club. If you find you are going to a show in the district and want to make sure there is a meet there just drop me a note. The easiest way to contact me is through email richbar302@gmail.com. Until next time, keep those cochins on Champion Row!

Pacific update from Bryant Helvey:

Hello from the West Coast!

It has been a very wet winter and spring here in the Pacific District, which has been a blessing and a curse. The end of the drought has been declared; many reservoirs are back to 60%+ capacity before the snowmelt has begun. At the same time, California experienced much flooding and infrastructure damage. CI flocks such as Michelle and Lacey Villines' have survived but been frustrated by very wet pens! Here in Washington we have set records for rainfall and overcast days, even in a state stigmatized by rainfall and overcast days...

Showing cochins, however, has still been enjoyable. I visited with Sheryl Butler at the Washington Feather Fanciers Cascade Spring show on 3/18/17. She said "I've had a tough time lately; I'm tired all the time. But yesterday (the day before the show) I could feel the corners of my mouth turning up!" Sheryl has related to me several times this year that talking about cochins and being at the shows are her happiest times and I'm sure many members can relate to this. For Sheryl, this has been reinforced by a Best Feather Legged award at Pacific Poultry Breeders Association in California in early February, and a Best of Show at the aforementioned Washington Feather Fanciers Show! Congratulations to Sheryl on a spectacular show season!

As a district, we have had success on several fronts this year. Our district meet will be held at the Oregon Spring Invitational, hosted by the Washington Poultry Exhibitors. This show is also an APA semi-annual and is being well marketed so we expect a good turnout. We have placed, 13 additional special meets in six states, and expect to confirm eleven more, over the summer and fall. It seems that new poultry clubs and shows are being started in California every year, which is a good sign for our hobby. Finally, we have continued to grow our youth membership.

Breeding season is in different stages for everyone in our district. Today I put in my first setting since June 2015, several dozen large partridge eggs. There is a good amount of interest in this variety so hopefully I can put some breeding groups in competent hands. I will be setting bantam eggs in the coming months as I get those breeding pens put together. I have been commiserating with other CI members about how moving households can really set back your breeding program; hopefully most of us are setting up facilities we can enjoy for decades to come. Enjoy watching those 2017 birds grow!

Southeast update from Ivy Young:

Happy Spring everyone!

It's that time of year again, hatching season is upon us! So far, my hatching season is going great, I'm really liking what I'm seeing in my grow outs. The Blues I'm highly excited about. It's so hard for me to say when enough is enough in hatching.

The Southeast had a sad ending to show season with the AI outbreak. But soon it will be warm and go away.

I think it's safe to say we were all sad about not spending time together at shows. I hope we can all manage to see each other this summer.

Just be sure and practice good biosecurity when it comes to your birds. I would like to, ask all Southeast members when going to shows to bring a copy of a show report with them. We've had issues of show reports not getting turned in and it would help if the shows would have report as a reminder. I've worked really hard trying to round them all up. But with as many shows as we have in southeast it's hard for me to make sure each show has a report.

I'm excited to announce the Southeast district meet will be November 4th 2017 in Barnwell SC the Sandlapper show. This will be a double show, the first show will be district meet, and 2nd show will be a special meet.

We will have a legacy award in honor of Otes Ray Sr. for best black bantam. And this year a legacy award in honor of Maxie Chastain for best white bantam.

So please save the date and come enjoy a great Cochin show. This past show season I've seen so many colors in cochins being shown, It makes it so great to see the rare and less shown colors seen. If anyone has any questions or anything they need help with please feel free to call, text or email me. Ivy Young, (828)707-2326, ivyyoung@bellsouth.net

West Central update from Craig Hansen

Only 2 Shows this spring in this district and they are both in May so no shows to report on. Biggest news is that the Cochins International Western National show has been placed with the Eastern Iowa Poultry Association. This show will be held on November 25 & 26, 2017 at the Mississippi Valley Fairgrounds in Davenport Iowa. EIPA the host club for the CI Western National has Dwight Madsen selected to judge the Cochins for the Western National. As I learn more, I will share that information. The West Central District show has been placed with the Minnesota State Poultry Association show October 28 & 29, 2017

Weather has been unusual here this winter and hatching has just started at my home. Avian Influenza in other states have me concerned and forcing me to rethink how many of each variety do I really need to hatch. Wishing you all a great hatch and hope to see you at a show sometime this year. I would ask members to fill out the questionnaire for the Breeders Directory when you receive it. I can be reached at CSHANSEN@SHARONTC.NET if you have questions or concerns. Craig Hansen

Canada update from Kathy Stevenson:

I tried to hatch my Large Fowl Cochin chicks in February and March to have them ready in time for the fall shows. This year March stayed true to the old weather folklore and came in like a lion and out like a lamb across the prairies. But despite the bitter cold of early spring, my Cochin hens were in high production mode, and I managed to hatch all the Cochin chicks I was hoping for early in the season. I'm feeling especially optimistic with the blues. Although they're still very young, I'm seeing some early signs that indicate good potential.

I am happy to report that several clubs from across Canada have expressed interest in hosting CI meets this year. Our country will be well represented from coast to coast if this enthusiasm continues! Please contact me if your club is interested in having a Special Meet in 2017.

The 2017 District Meet for Canada will be hosted by the Ontario Poultry Breeders on October 21, 2017. This show has been designated as an APA and ABA provincial meet. I expect there will be a good number of Cochins exhibited. A Special Meet has been placed in British Columbia, with the Vernon Pigeon and Poultry Club. Their Annual Fall FeatherFest will be held on October 14, 2017 at the Armstrong Fairgrounds. This show has been designated as the APA Canadian National for 2017, so it's definitely worth making plans to attend this show.

Another Special Meet for Canada is taking place in Lacombe, Alberta on November 4, 2017 hosted by the Canadian Heritage Breeds Club. This club is busy making plans for a special event this year in celebration of Canada's 150th anniversary of confederation. The show will take place at a provincial historic site – a 1930's era Livestock Sales Pavilion. Besides the poultry show, the weekend event will include live examples of the breeds of poultry and livestock that were brought to Canada with the first homesteaders, as well as a display of antique farm equipment. It's great when clubs are able to combine their poultry shows with other attractions that appeal to both the exhibitors, and the general public.

In the meantime, there will be plenty of fairs and summer shows to attend all across this great country of ours. I wish you all great success for 2017! Kathy Stevenson, Director

International update from John Burgess:

Here are some pictures from Cochon Day that Ardjan Warnshuis had sent me. There were 75 large fowl and 250 bantams. The Best Cochon was a Black Female and Best Opposite Sex was a Buff Male. The judges were from four countries and visitors come from all over Europe. If you have any questions, please contact, Ardjan Warnshuis at warnshuis@lembecker.de.

Breeders Directory update from Gail Carlson:

I will be publishing the Breeders Directory again this fall. By the time you read this Newsletter, you should already have received your Breeder Questionnaire in the mail. The Directory is only as good as our member participation – so please take a few minutes, complete your breeder form, and return it. Listing in the Directory is FREE, and it is the best way to get your contact information out to others, as well as letting everyone know what Varieties you raise. If you would like to purchase an ad, that information will also be in the packet. We hope that you will consider advertising to help defray the cost of the Directory.

Club Historian update from Michael Lamp:

NO REPORT

Newsletter Announcement:

I announced last year, that I would no longer be able to do the newsletter after the first of this year. I did the newsletter for over six years with help from Linda Lucas that was appreciated, and I enjoyed doing it. I would like to welcome Angela Mills from Texas as our new newsletter Editor. I have met Angela and her husband at the Western National last year and she is very excited to do the newsletter with maybe some new fresh ideas.

Thank you for letting me being your Editor and welcome Angela. Below is a bio from Angela.

Thanks, Linda Tobia

Newsletter Editor Angela Mills:

Beginning with the next issue, September 1st, Cochín International, President, Linda Tobia will be passing-on the creation of the club newsletter to myself. My name is Angela Mills and I live in Texas. My husband, Tony Mills, Patty Shay and I hatch and show a variety of cochín breeds under the name of Country Road Bantams.

I have a Bachelor of Science in Communication and over 20 years of experience in marketing and development including creating newsletters and other pieces. Since then I am learning from Tony how to raise and show birds. We were excited to learn that we earned the 2016 Exhibitor Award for Buff Columbian Cochins.

Newsletter traditions, such as Director's Reports and others will continue. Plans to highlight Cochín International's rich history and bring a sharper focus on developing youth events and education is in the works. Ideas will continue to be welcome as always! Please contact me, Angela Mills, at angelamwreeves@aol.com or countryroadbantams@aol.com.

Youth Program from Teri Frye:

Happy Spring Everyone!

As we move from spring in summer, I hope you all have been able to hatch some chicks from your favorite birds. Don't forget-- if you have any trouble getting fertile eggs, feel free to contact one of our club members who have experience breeding cochins.

I want to bring to your attention the BIG CHANGES we have made to the Cochín International Junior Program. We hope these adjustments will encourage more juniors to become educated about poultry and breed show quality cochins! We have lowered the points to complete the Junior Master Exhibitors Program to 3500 points, and we have added a mandatory Breeding and Hatching Record. Each junior must complete at least one breeding and Hatching Record for one pair or one breeding pen of cochins over one breeding season. The Breeding and Hatching Record will be worth 300 points; however, additional records may be completed and submitted for 25 points each.

I have also created a new Show Points Record that I hope makes it easier to submit the points you earn at a show. So, if you are behind in submitting points for 2016, you may consolidate and record your points on this form. Just attach copies of your coop- tags and Showmanship forms with the Name of the Show you attended clearly visible. If you wish to receive pins for any Best of Breed or Reserve of Breed wins, just let me know and provide your current return mailing address. Please remember to mail all copies of Showmanship Reports, Point Reports, Coop-tags, Service Reports, or anything else you wish to submit for points to me by U. S. Postal mail. I do keep a physical file of everything you submit to me, so please, do not submit points by email. All of the Record and Report forms you need can be found on the Cochins International website under the Junior Program Tab. If you have any questions or concerns, please email me at terikfrye@gmail.com.

I hope everyone has a FANTASTIC summer!!!

Code of Conduct Disciplinary Action:

The Board of Directors recently took action to remove a member from our rolls. A formal hearing, as prescribed by ARTICLE VI, Section 4, of the Disciplinary Actions of the Constitution was held concerning the conduct of a COCHIN member. Evidence was presented and discussed followed by an oral vote of Board of Directors. The member in question was permanently expelled from the organization. The Board of Directors of Cochins International takes issues of member conduct very seriously and feels that only in the most extreme circumstances should a member be sanctioned or removed from the club. Unfortunately, recent occurrences by one of our members have resulted in the Board taking action to remove that member from our rolls. A formal hearing, as prescribed in Article VI, Section 4 of the Disciplinary Actions of the Constitution was held concerning the conduct of one of our members. Evidence was presented and discussed and followed by an oral vote of the Board of Directors. The vote resulted in the member in question being permanently removed from our organization. No member should ever have to worry about being barred from an organization, however, when individuals act in such a way that is contrary to the purpose and function of the organization, or negatively impacts other members, action must be taken to preserve the integrity of the organization.

CODE OF CONDUCT - Article VI of Cochins International By-Laws

In order to promote values such as integrity, service and friendship, education in promoting purebred poultry and to maintain consistency throughout the poultry fancy, Cochins International will adopt the American Bantam Association (ABA) Code of Conduct as follows:

Purpose:

1. Provides a democratic and orderly process to address activities that may have a negative impact to the integrity, operation and long term health of Cochins International.
2. Promotes values that maintain the strength and longevity of Cochins International.

Grounds for Disciplinary Actions:

1. Theft or any other actions that impact or compromise the financial integrity of Cochins International.
2. Organized or individual attempts to purposely slander or discredit the integrity or stature of Cochins International, its Officers, Regional Directors and/or the general membership.
3. Misrepresentation of Cochins International credentials, logo, property, etc., for the purpose of personal gain.
4. Discrimination and harassment based on race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, or any other class.
5. Violence or threats of violence.
6. Any additional actions that result in significant negative impact to Cochins International.

Procedures for Addressing Code of Conduct Violations:

1. The Board of Directors will conduct an appropriate hearing to validate or disprove any of the above violations.
2. The discussion/hearing shall be held at the next scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. (If there is an immediate need to discuss or address an urgent issue, other forms of Cochins International / May, 2014 Page 7 communication/discussion may be used including e-mail, phone, conference, etc.)
3. Recommended disciplinary actions must be passed by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of Cochins International.
4. Disciplinary steps as agreed upon by majority vote will be communicated by the President of Cochins International.

Disciplinary Actions:

Any member who fails to maintain adherence to the Cochins International Code of Conduct is subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to the following in any order or combination:

1. Verbal warning issued by any member of the Executive Board of Cochins International.
2. Written warning issued by Cochins International.
3. Membership suspension for six months or greater.
